

The Great Stocking Stuff-off

We gave Boston's savviest personal shoppers three hours and $100 to round up some choice holiday loot.

TEAM 1: ALICE MILES & MARIA VASILEVSKY, STILISTA

"Everyone's so stressed out about the money stuff this season. To combat that, our spree in Cambridge focused on things that will decrease anxiety, as well as eco-friendly gifts, which are guilt-free."

TEAM 2: ALISA NEELY, SCOUT

"I hit the Back Bay and Beacon Hill by car (without getting a single parking ticket!) and chose items that would make for a fun winter night in, whether you're hosting a group or just hanging out with one person."

Graphic T-shirt, $12, Magpie

Relay 1-gigabyte USB flash drive, $9.99, Staples

Brushkins squirrel ornament, $8, Nomad

Vanilla marshmallows, $4.99, Whole Foods Market

Gin & Tonic ice cube mold, $8, Davis Squared

Hot chocolate, $8.99, Whole Foods Market

Fork, knife, and spoon, $7.50, Greenward

Ceramic coffee cup with silicone lid, $19, Greenward

Yoga class, $14, Baptiste Power Yoga Institute

Milk Duds, $1.59, Walgreens

The Book of Questions, $6.95, Trident Booksellers & Café

House of Cards (deck of interlocking picture cards), $25, Good

Not for Tourists Guide to Boston, $16.95, Black Ink

Bamboo pens, $3 each, Hudson

M. Chapoutier Belleruche Côtes-du-Rhône, $9.99, Bauer Wine & Spirits

Classic Christmas DVD, $5.98, Trident Booksellers & Café

iTunes gift card, $15, Apple Store

Flip coins, $9 for two, Good

TOTAL $92.47

TOTAL $96.46